

MINIATURE GOLF COURSE OPENED SUNDAY

ORANJESTAD—The island Golf Miniature golf Course was officially opened Sunday afternoon. The recreation facility, very popular in the USA is something new for Aruba. Located in a pleasant setting just west of the Surfside Restaurant, the midget Golf course is attractively designed and decorated with eye-catching gadgets to enhance the enjoyment of the game, which according to indications will be fun galore for players from 6 to 60. Starting on July 1, the course will be open day and night, seven days a week. A fee of 3 guilders per game will be charged for adults and half price for children; there will also be available on the premises. Proprietors of the miniature golf course are two American Ladies, Louise Rinaldi and Sandra Natrillo. The proprietors emphasized at the opening that besides being a tourist attraction the facilities are to provide recreation and fun for the entire population of island.
